Brezhnev. We now await the unfolding of the succession process, which does not end with the appointment of Yuri V. Andropov as the new General Secretary of the Communist Party. The 1980's may well be decisive in determining the course of the conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union. The relationship will either move toward an accommodation or much closer to war. The odds are, however, that a superpower settlement of sorts will be reached.	False	By William G.
